

Diplomate in Translation Studies

15 hour Program

The Diplomate in Translation Studies responds to the increasing demand of applied language courses among past, current and future graduate students in the M.A. Spanish program and the MAIS program with a concentration in Spanish.

The program will offer training in a set of professional skills devised to provide support in other professional studies programs with significant community impact, like nursing criminal justice, business management and media communication among others.

The Diplomate will encourage students who complete courses in the certificate program with a GPA of 3.5 or higher to continue their graduate studies by pursuing the Master of Arts in Spanish or the MAIS with a concentration in Spanish or English.

Admission Requirements

Evidence of academic achievement and potential for advanced study and research is required for graduate admission. Admission requirements for the Diplomate in Translation Studies are:

- Entry interview
- Letter of recommendation from the student's undergraduate faculty advisor
- Satisfactory performance on the Spanish essay.
- Satisfactory performance essay on the translation of a document from English to Spanish and from Spanish to English.

Notification of decision on graduate admissions is made by the Office of Graduate Studies based on the admission criteria and recommendation of the academic department. Information related to application procedures and deadlines is available through the Office of Graduate Studies.
